

The solemn coronation of Rumania's rulers. King Ferdinand, after being crowned by the President of the Senate, in turn crowns the Queen, kneeling before him in the public square at Albajulia. International.

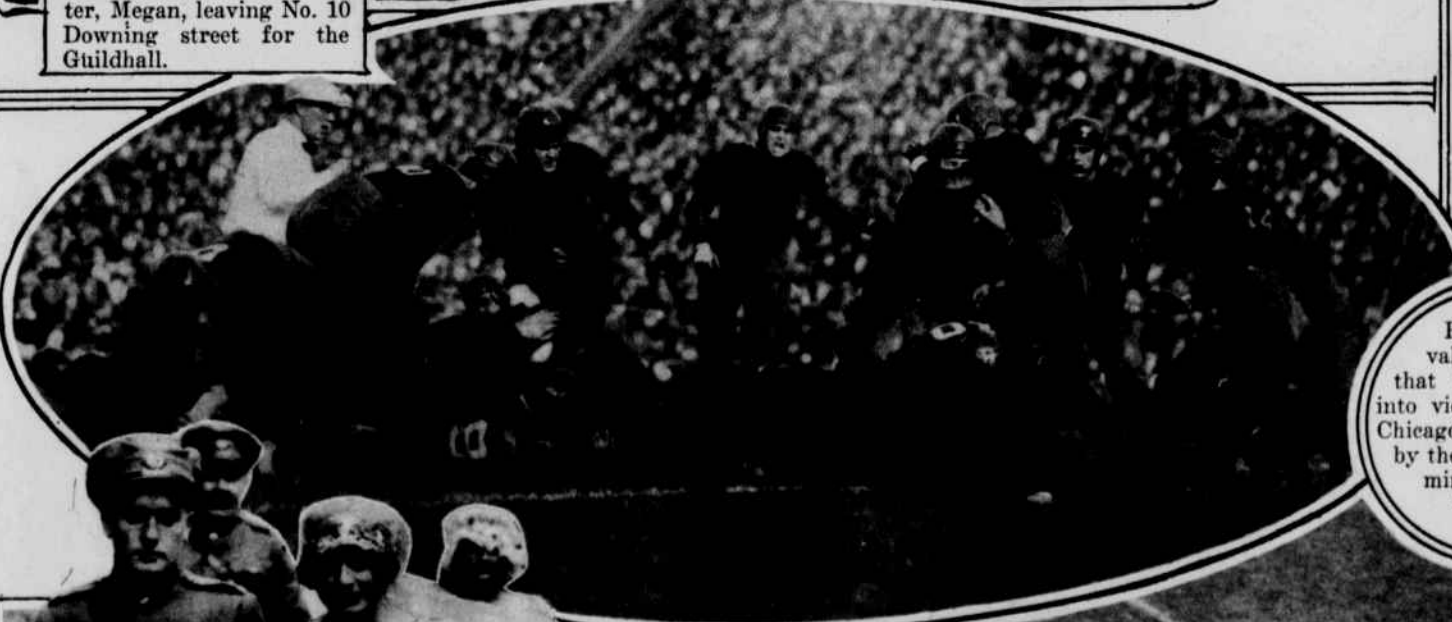

Dethroned but smiling and fighting—the former Premier and Mrs. Lloyd George, with their daughter, Megan, leaving No. 10 Downing street for the Guildhall.

Above — Interested spectators of the crowning of Rumania's sovereigns. Left to right: The Crown Princess of Rumania, Queen Elizabeth of Greece and Queen Marie of Yugoslavia. New York Herald Foreign Photo.

A triumphant demonstration of Fascists in Milan. One of the processions of the organization which overturned the Italian Cabinet and forced the appointment of a new Premier, with seven of its members in the leading offices.

Princeton's valiant stand that turned defeat into victory. Pyott of Chicago being stopped by the Tiger's determined defense. Pacific and Atlantic.

A striking photo of Yale and the Army in action. Neale, Yale half-back, carrying the ball around the Army's end for a gain. Keystone.

Major-Gen. Gerard O'Sullivan, Adjutant-General of the Irish Free State army, and his bride, the former Miss Maud Kiernan, sister of Miss Kitty Kiernan, who was to have married Gen. Michael Collins, coming from the church after their wedding in Dublin. International.